

Resume

Al-Shawabkeh, Younis Ahmad, PhD

Amman, Jordan

E-mail: y.shawabkeh@ju.edu.jo

yshawabka@yahoo.com

Mobile : 00962795222709

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

- PhD Library and Information Science, Faculty of Information and Communication Technology, International Islamic University Malaysia, 2005.
- MA Library and Information Science, Faculty of Arts, Department of Library and Information Science, Mustansiriyah University, Baghdad.
- MA Educational Administration, Yarmuk University, Jordan, 1991.
- BA Library and Information science, Cairo University, 1973.

Teaching & work experience

February 2009- Associate professor, Jordan University, Faculty of Educational Sciences, Department of Library and Information Science.

September 2007-2009, Assistant Professor, Philadelphia University (Amman, Jordan), Department of Library and Information Science.

June 1995-August 2007, Technical services specialist and coordinator at the Libraries Deanship of the United Arab Emirates University.

1987 – 1995, Instructor for library science courses, Irbid Community College, (Irbid, Jordan).

Jan 1986 – Aug 1986, Librarian, Jordan Arabic language Academy (Amman, Jordan).

Sep 1975 – May 1986, Cataloger, Umm al-Qura University Central Library (Saudi Arabia).

Books:

- Arabic Script Web-based Catalogs in the 21st century: Present and future challenges (Al-Ain, UAE: 2005). Works and proceedings of the symposium. Al-Ain: UAEU, Libraries Deanship, 2005.
- Dewey Decimal Classification and Relative Index, Edition 23: Adapted translation for schedules, tables, and relative index. Amman: Jordan Library & Information Association, 2014.
- Evaluation of the usability and effectiveness of CDS/ISIS in libraries and information centers in Jordan. Amman: Abd al Hamid Shuman Institution, 1996.
- History of Arabic Countries in the Library of Congress Classification: Adapted translation with analytical study and index. Al Ain: Libraries Deanship, UAE University, 2002.
- Islam in the Library of Congress Classification System: Adapted translation for LCC Subclass BP with analytical study and index. Al Ain: Libraries Deanship, UAE University, 2001.
- Library of Congress Classification new Subclass KBP: A study on its perceived usefulness and suitability for Islamic Law. Unpublished PhD thesis. International Islamic University Malaysia, 2005.
- Using CDS/ISIS in libraries and information centers in Jordan. Amman: Abd al Hamid Shuman Foundation, 1996.

Supervision of theses:

1. Odeh, Aminah Yusuf (2014). Degree of The Efficacy of Using Dewey Decimal Classification on the Web (Web Dewey) in the Jordanian University Libraries as Perceived by Catalogers and their Attitudes Towards Using it. Unpublished Master theses, University of Jordan, Department of Library & Information Science.
2. Mamduh, Fadya Salim (2014). The status Quo of electronic information sources development in the Jordanian University Libraries from their employees' point of view and recommended a policy to their development. Unpublished Master theses, University of Jordan, Department of Library & Information Science.
3. Al Rahayyel, In'aam Omar (2014) The status quo of employees' training programs in public libraries in Jordan and the assessment of their training needs from their point of view. Unpublished Master theses, University of Jordan, Department of Library & Information Science.
4. Othman, Faris Ali (2014) Degree of suitability of PMB & SLIMS Open Source Systems for school libraries in light of the requirements of the Ministry of Education in Jordan. Unpublished Master theses, University of Jordan, Department of Library & Information Science.
5. Al Dumur, Hibah (2015) Efficacy of Using Library of Congress Classification on the Web (Classification Web) & the Impediments Hindering its' use as Perceived by Catalogers at the Jordanian University Libraries. Unpublished Master theses, University of Jordan, Department of Library & Information Science.

6. Al Rufu' Mu'awiyah (2015) Subject Analysis of Information Resources and its Problems in the Jordanian University Libraries as Perceived by Catalogers. Unpublished Master theses, University of Jordan, Department of Library & Information Science.

Papers:

1. Attitudes of Educational Sciences Students Towards Information Literacy: "Library Skills and Use" Course as a Model (2012). Journal of Educational Sciences. 8 (4), 315-328. Available online at:
<http://repository.yu.edu.jo/handle/123456789/135412>
2. Using the Online Public Access Catalogs (OPACs): The case of the Jordan University Library OPAC (2013). Dirasat: Educational Sciences. 40 (1), 144-162.
3. Using Internet-based electronic resources in educational theses and dissertations: An analytical study of citations. Journal of Educational Sciences. 6 (4), 303-317. Available online at:
<http://repository.yu.edu.jo/handle/123456789/135469>
4. Library of Congress Classification: Catalogers perceptions of the new Subclass KBP. Library Review. 56 (2), 117-126. Available online at:
<http://www.emeraldinsight.com/doi/abs/10.1108/00242530710730303>
5. Degree of Using Material and Moral Incentives in Public University Libraries in Jordan as Perceived by Librarians (2011). An-Najah University Journal for Research – Humanities. 25, (10), 2610-2646. Available online at:
<http://scholar.najah.edu/publication/journal-article/degree-using-material-and-moral-incentives-public-university-libraries>
6. The degree of awareness of faculty members at Jordan University to the concept of open access to information as a new system for scientific communication (2011). Dirasat-Educational sciences. 38 (Appendix 5), 1601-1617. Available online at:
<https://journals.ju.edu.jo/DirasatEdu/article/view/3725>
7. Job Satisfaction and its Relation to Organizational Commitment of Librarians in the Jordanian Public University Libraries (2013). Dirasat-Educational sciences. 40 (1), 181-200. Available online at:
<http://journals.ju.edu.jo/DirasatEdu/article/view/4071/3122>

CONFERENCES, SEMINARS, AND WORKSHOPS

- Arabic Script Web-based Catalogs, 15-16 February 2005. Al – Ain, UAE (Organizer and scientific committee member)

- SLA-AGC 11th Conference, 29-31 March 2005. Al – Ain, UAE (Presenter)
- SLA-AGC 12th Conference, 11-13 April 2006. Muscat, Oman (Presenter)
- SLA-AGC 13th Conference, 4-6 April 2007. Manama, Bahrain (Presenter)
- Best practices in modern libraries. A workshop organized by Arabian Advanced Systems. Dubai, 12-13 December 2005. (Lecturer)
- Online cataloging and use of Z39 in the exchange of bibliographic records: A workshop organized by the Deanship of Library affairs, University of Sharjah 5-8 March 2006 (Lecturer)
- Jordanian Librarians Conference: 2nd 1991 -14th 2014 . Amman: Jordan Library & Information Association.

MEMBERSHIP AND INTERESTS

- Member of Jordan Library& Information Association, 1974-
- Member of Arab Federation for Library and Information.
- Member of SLA-Arab Gulf Chapter, 2005-
- Main interests: Adaptations and translations for Dewey Decimal Classification and Library of Congress Classification, AACR2 developments, electronic libraries, US MARC, HORIZON, VTLS, and Millennium integrated systems.
- Other interests: Arabic Language problems in Information Retrieval, Arabic subject headings, and authority control for Arabic authors and subject headings.